

INTRODUCTION TO COMPUTING

COMP001

FINAL PROJECT

Name: Crystal N. Pesigan
Course: BSIT1
Section:1

Web Page Name: Home Page (index.html)

List of html tag & how it used.

HTML Tag	Use in the Web Page
<!DOCTYPE html>	Defines the document type and version of HTML.
<html>	The root element that wraps all the content of the web page.
<head>	Contains meta-information, the title, and links to external CSS.
<body>	Contains all the visible content of the portfolio.
<header>	Used for the top section containing the logo and navigation links.
<nav>	Defines the navigation area for the site menu.
&	Used together to create the list of navigation links.
	Defines hyperlinks to navigate between different pages. <section>
<section>	Used to group the main introduction content (Hero section).
<h1>	Used to display the main heading which is the name "Crystal Pesigan.
	Used for the motto, biography text, and the list of fun facts.
	Acts as a container for different sections like hero-text and img-box.
	Used to embed the profile image file onto the page.
	Used to display Font Awesome icons for the fun facts list.
<footer>	Used for the bottom section containing the copyright notice.

List of CSS element and how it used.

CSS Element	Where it is apply in the HTML and its purpose
justify-content	Used to distribute space between the logo and navigation links.
align-items	Applied to center elements vertically within their containers.
color	Applied to set the font colors for headings and body text.
padding & margin	Used to create internal and external spacing around elements.
font-family	Applied to define the typeface used throughout the website.
object-fit: cover	Applied to the image to ensure it fits the box without distortion.
img-box	Applied to the image div to set the width and height to 400px.
border-radius	Applied to .img-box with a value of 30px to create rounded corners.
background-color	Applied to the header and footer to maintain a consistent dark theme.
display: flex	Applied to the hero class to align text and image side-by-side.

Web Page Name:My Skills (skills.html)

List of html tag & how it used.

HTML Tag	Use in the Web Page
<h2>	Used for the "My Skills" section title.
<h3>	Used for category titles like "Soft Skills" and "Hobbies".
	Used for the category icons and hobby icons (gamepad, heart).
	Used for the skill-category-card and the background bar of the progress bars.
	Used to highlight the specific names of the technical and soft skills.
	Used to display the numerical skill level (e.g., 6/10).

List of CSS element and how it used.

CSS Element	Where it is apply in the HTML and its purpose
.progress	Applied to the inner bar to show the skill level using a brown fill.
box-shadow	Applied to skill-category-card to create a shadow effect for depth.
text-align	Applied to the title to ensure it is perfectly centered on the page.
.skill-category-card	A class used to style the white boxes with padding and shadows.
.bar	A class used to create the background container for the progress indicators.
width	Applied to the .progress class to represent the percentage of the skill.
height	Applied to the progress bar containers to define their thickness.
transition	Used to make hover effects on cards and hobby icons smooth.

Web Page Name:Lesson Gallery (lessons.html)

List of html tag & how it used.

HTML Tag	Use in the Web Page
	Used to wrap the lesson-card to make the entire box a clickable link.
	Used to display large icons for each lesson topic in the gallery.
<h2>	Used for the "Lesson Gallery" main heading.
	Used for the instruction text "Select the topic below...".
	Used for the lesson-grid (parent) and the lesson-card (children) containers.
<h3>	Used to display the title of each topic (e.g., The Computer System, Number System).

List of CSS element and how it used.

CSS Element	Where it is apply in the HTML and its purpose
display: grid	Applied to .lesson-grid to arrange the cards in a 3-column layout.
grid-template-columns	Used to define the size and number of columns in the grid.

transform	Applied on :hover to make the card "lift" up when pointed at by the mouse.
transition	Ensures the hover animation (lifting effect) is smooth and not instant.
.lesson-card	Applied to style the cards with a white background and padding.
gap	Applied to the grid to provide even spacing between all lesson tiles.
transition	Applied to cards to create a smooth lifting effect when hovered.
box-shadow	Adds a subtle shadow to the cards to make them look like they are floating.

Web Page Name: Lesson Details (lesson1.html - lesson8.html)

List of html tag & how it used.

HTML Tag	Use in the Web Page
<h2>	Used for the specific Lesson Title (e.g., Lesson 1: The Computing Industry).
<article>	Used to wrap the main lesson content for better semantic structure.
&	Used to list down the key points or sub-topics discussed in the lesson.
	Used to highlight important terms or definitions within the summary.
	Used for the "Back to Gallery" button at the bottom of the page.

List of CSS element and how it used.

CSS Element	Where it is apply in the HTML and its purpose
line-height	Applied to the lesson text to make the summary easier to read.
list-style-type	Applied to to use custom bullets for the lesson points.
max-width:	Applied to the content container so the text doesn't stretch too wide.
margin:	Used to center the entire lesson content on the screen.

Web Page Name: Contact Me (contact.html)

List of html tag & how it used.

HTML Tag	Use in the Web Page
----------	---------------------

<form>	Used for the "Full Name" and "Email Address" text entry fields.
<textarea>	Used for the message box to allow multi-line text input from users.
<button>	Used for the "Send Message" button to submit the form data.
<h2>	Displays the main section title "Contact Me".
	Used for the instruction text and to display your email address.
:	Used to highlight your email for better visibility.
<input>	Used for "Full Name" and "Email Address" fields with required attributes.
<script>	Used to link the script.js file for form validation and dynamic height behavior.
<footer>	Contains the copyright notice: "© 2026 CRYSTAL N. PESIGAN PORTFOLIO".

List of CSS element and how it used.

CSS Element	Where it is apply in the HTML and its purpose
max-width	Applied to the form to limit its width for better readability.
border-radius: 8px	Applied to input fields for a consistent rounded-corner look.
margin: 0 auto	Used to center the form horizontally on the page.
display: flex	Applied to the form container with flex-direction: column to stack fields vertically.
resize: none	Applied to the textarea to disable manual resizing, maintaining the design layout.
overflow-y: hidden	Used on the textarea to hide scrollbars while it automatically expands.
width:	Applied to inputs and button so they fill the width of the form.
padding: 10px 15px	Applied inside the text fields to prevent the text from touching the borders.
box-sizing: border-box	Ensures that padding and borders do not make the input boxes wider than the form.
background-color	Applied to the "Send Message" button using your theme's brown color.

List of JS feature & how it used:

JS feature	Use in the Web Page
getElementById()	Used to target the form, input fields, and the message textarea by their IDs.
addEventListener	Listens for the "submit" event for the alert and "input" event for resizing.
preventDefault()	Prevents the page from refreshing when the "Send Message" button is clicked.

alert()	Displays a pop-up: "Thank you, [Name]! Your message has been received."
scrollHeight	Used to calculate the height of the message content so the box can expand.
reset()	Clears all text from the Name, Email, and Message boxes after submission.
